RE: VAMPIRES IN LITERATURE: A POSTMODERN STUDY OF BRAM STOKER AND ANNE RICE. DECEMBER 2005.

Dear Christina,

I am the Scholarly Communications Librarian at the University of the Incarnate Word (UIW). I am writing to ask for your help with an exciting new initiative at the university. The UIW libraries have created a digital, web-based archive called The Athenaeum. The archive is an open access repository for the intellectual work produced by faculty, students and staff at UIW. This institutional repository will house PDF, multimedia and graphic files that may be accessed, downloaded and read for free for educational and scholarly purposes. After we go "live," it will be located at athenaeum.uiw.edu.

While The Athenaeum is owned and maintained by the University of the Incarnate Word, you, as the owner of your intellectual work, must give us permission to deposit your thesis in The Athenaeum. I am requesting permission to make a digital copy of your thesis to be uploaded and accessible in the repository for perpetuity.

This request is for a non-exclusive, world rights and royalty-free permission. It is not intended to interfere with other uses of this work by you. Copyright notice and full citation to your work will be given. If you have not done so, we recommended that you license this work with Creative Commons at <http://www.creativecommons.org>.

A duplicate of this letter has been provided for your records. If you agree with the terms as described in this letter, please sign, date and return this letter in the self-addressed, stamped envelope included for your convenience. Your permission to use your thesis in this manner is greatly appreciated. If you have further questions, please contact me at pmccord@uiwtx.edu or 210-805-5809.

Cordially,

Polly McCord
